MEA not to attend MCESD meeting on Enemalta Dispute

The Malta Employers' Association has informed the Malta Council for Economic and Social Development (MCESD) that it will not be attending the meeting that has been convened at the request of the General Workers Union to discuss the Enemalta dispute.

The Association has adopted this stand because of the formal notice of sympathy action that has been sent to employers by the General Workers Union. The Association feels that there is no point in being present for this meeting unless the threat of sympathy industrial action is lifted. The Association also said that now that the matter has been referred to the Industrial Tribunal, there is no point in raising the issue at MCESD.
