One of Malta's Darkest Days in Post-Independence History – Malta Employers' Association

The Malta Employers' Association expressed its shock and dismay at the brutal murder of Mrs. Daphne Caruana Galizia in what it termed as one of Malta's darkest days in its post-independence history. The Association said that this cowardly act strikes at the heart of the freedom of expression and investigative journalism. The Association called on the authorities to leave no stone unturned to bring the perpetrators to justice and conveyed its condolences to Mrs. Caruana Galizia's family.
