

5 June 2015

Media Release

Government has right to compensation for Substandard Work – MEA

The MEA urged Government and the Opposition to serenely allow the application of rules and procedures to establish clear accountabilities in respect of substandard works carried out at Mater Dei Hospital.

The MEA added that Government should pursue its inalienable, and evidently guaranteed right, to compensation for manifestly substandard work for which Contractors got paid in full at agreed rates.