

4th January 2022

Media Release

Malta Employers' Association issues a Directive to Employers

The Malta Employers' Association has issued a directive to its members instructing them to treat any absence from work which has not been authorised by the employer, as unpaid leave. The Association stated that it is the prerogative of the employer to decide whether its employees should work remotely or not.