SCOPE

Organisations are facing increasing challenges some as disruptive as a pandemic nevertheless opportunities are not in short supply. To capitalise on opportunities those who lead others, no matter at what level they are in the organisation need to be ready to act. Leading a team to adapt to change and thrive in times of great uncertainty, requires business acumen, the passion to lead and the competence to achieve and succeed. This is what this programme delivers.

THE WEBINAR

Shall take the participants through the various modules of the programme, as well as, the skills based methodology which apart from providing the necessary knowledge, the course imparts skills which the delegates can immediately practice at the work place.

FACILITATORS

The webinar shall be conducted by the Director General of MEA Mr Joe Farrugia and the course lead trainer Mr Joe Gerada and Dr Clive Gerada who shall reply to any questions and clarify any issues raised by the participants.
