FSS end of year documents / VAT Return Online submission information session

INTRODUCTION

As part of a wide campaign of online services, the Commissioner for Revenue is increasing opportunities where one can submit the VAT return and FSS end of year documents online. As from October 2018, the Department started notifying Sole Proprietors that employ 10 or more employees, as well as all limited liability Companies, that this will be the last time they will be receiving the VAT return by post.

The Malta Employers' Association in collaboration with the Commissioner for Revenue shall be organising the last information session on the on-line submission of the FSS end of year documents and VAT Return services on Thursday, 7th February 2019.
